WRITING

William Shakespeare said that: "All the world's a stage, and all the men and women are merely players." The author meant that all people wearing masks every day, and it makes the world look like a theatre stage. I think that writer was right about it because we are hiding a lot of our emotions and thoughts from each other. There are many reasons for this.

For example, some people pretend to be somebody that they aren't to achieve their goals or just for looking better than they are. Everyone has met this persons on a life path. This people are playing like real theatre actors. The great lie.

Also we can't say about our feelings. We are afraid that we will be judged or people won't be able to understand us. Like actors we play the feelings that we don't feel. It looks like a better way in this situation for ~~more~~ many people.

In conclusion, ~~if~~ if all people hide their feelings and wear masks, the world becomes a stage. <sup>Once</sup> About this said William Shakespeare.
